

Fundraise For The Film And TV Charity

We're the industry charity for people who work behind the scenes in film, TV, and cinema. Back in 1924, we started life as a benevolent fund primarily supporting cinema workers and their families. Fast forward 100 years and we now provide support to over 200,000 people working behind the scenes in hundreds of roles.

With a focus on mental and physical health, financial wellbeing, and equity and inclusion, we've developed our services to match the needs of our industry. We offer a wide range of services including a 24/7 Film and TV Support Line, financial support, legal advice, and help and support with everything from mental health, discrimination, bullying and harassment through to help with personal and professional development. Plus, we have a whole host of practical tools and resources available for anyone who just needs some guidance and advice.

Your fundraising will help us make sure these services are always available to people who need them, making the industry a better place to work.

Help us mark 100 years of support by raising vital funds to support people across the industry today.

Any fundraising for the Charity is enormously appreciated. To help you on your way, here are some ideas for the type of things you could think about doing:

Special Event Fundraising

Celebrating a special event – a birthday, a wedding, or a special anniversary? You could ask for donations to the Film and TV Charity instead of gifts. You can set this up easily on JustGiving or Facebook.

Sweepstakes

Challenge your colleagues to predict award show results, or even who's going to win the league this year. Charge a few pounds for entry and get everyone involved – someone wins a prize and the added bonus is that all proceeds help continue the Charity's work!

On-set Bake Sale

Everyone loves a bit of cake, don't they? Why not hold a Charity bake sale, with proceeds allocated to the Film and TV Charity. Would-be Bake Off contestants get to show off, but everyone can get involved – even if you don't like baking, chances are you like eating the results!

Step Challenge

The more energetic amongst you could challenge your colleagues to a sponsored race, improving wellbeing in your workplace, and raising money for the Charity at the same time! Who can do the most steps in a week or a month? Or work together and walk the distance between two famous landmarks – John O’Groats to Lands End is only 603 miles!

Challenge Events

Taking part in a challenge event is a great way to fundraise while having an amazing life experience. You might take part to fulfil a long-held ambition, as a team-building exercise, or for your own personal milestones. Whatever it is, challenge events are hugely rewarding and generate much needed funds for the Charity.

Quiz Night

You’re all film and TV experts, right? Try putting that to the test with a film and TV themed quiz night and prove to friends and colleagues that you’re a Mastermind. Set your entry price and pick a great prize for the winner(s), with proceeds going to the Film and TV Charity.
